A NOTE OF THANKS

On behalf of our daddy and grandpa (papa), Thurman Harris, we extend our deepest appreciation to the saints at Grace Church for once again ministering to our family and helping share our burden in a time of grief. Thank you for all the food, phone calls, cards, visits, flowers, and especially prayers during this season. In our sorrow, we rejoice that Daddy is with the Lord. In his quiet way, he touched and influenced the lives of many people.

PRAYER REQUESTS and PRAISES

- John and Joanne Austin have requested prayer for their weekly Diplomat Lunch Discussion Series that began on April 8. The discussion is titled Living Above Average—Facing Reality with Faith and Hope. Also pray for the spring series of weekly Bible studies and Conversational English Classes for wives of diplomats which begins next Tuesday, April 13.
- Continue to pray for Fred and Joyce Burklin. Joyce called the office recently to say that Fred has started radiation treatments, 5 days a week for 5 weeks. She appreciates our prayers and said she knows that is why doctors now say that Fred has about a year left.
- Please pray for Sam and Liz Williams as they work this month in Sitka, Alaska. Sam is serving as a surgeon at the native hospital for the Haida and Tlingit tribes. He will return May 5 and leave on the 12th for his tenth short-term mission trip to Togo. Pray for health, safety, and effectiveness as Sam seeks to be a good physician working for the Great Physician. Liz will return on April 14 and will remain at home while Sam is in Togo.
- Tomorrow night, Nils Thomas will speak on the third commandment at the Rescue Mission service at 7:45. Be in prayer for Nils and the other team members, and ask God to work in the hearts of those He will bring to the service.
- Pray that Johnny Holley, cousin of Ray Holley, would seek the Lord during his battle with brain cancer.
- Continue to uphold Scott and Carolyn White as Scott recovers from extensive surgery on his foot. Pray for complete healing.
